CIRCLE PEAK CAPITAL AND ITS CAPITAL PARTNERS
ANNOUNCE CONTROL RECAPITALIZATION OF FISCHBEIN LLC

New York, NY – Monday, May 2, 2011 – Circle Peak Capital LLC and its capital partners announced the control recapitalization of portfolio company, Fischbein LLC (“Fischbein”), to Atlanta-based private equity firm, MSouth Equity Partners, who partnered with existing Fischbein investors, Triangle Capital and Prospect Capital, in the transaction. Fischbein was previously acquired and recapitalized in a deal led by R. Adam Smith, Founder and CEO of Circle Peak Capital, in May 2007. Circle Peak Capital supported operating partner, CEO and Chairman of Fischbein, Jeffrey F. Reed, during the recapitalization. Reed remains CEO of Fischbein today.

Since 1910, Fischbein has designed, manufactured, and provided innovative closing and handling package equipment and complete systems. As a worldwide leading company, they offer a full range of filling, weighing, closing, and handling equipment to all industries that package their products under Fischbein, Saxon, and Inglett brand names. These industries include: agriculture, animal feed, pet food, minerals, chemicals, pharmaceutical, medical, building materials, and food. Fischbein also manufactures material handling equipment under the Flexible, Nestaflex and MAXX brand names.

Fischbein’s U.S. headquarters are located in Statesville, NC, while their European headquarters are in Brussels, Belgium. Fischbein’s manufacturing and sales/distribution offices are in Suwanee, GA; Hampton, VA; France, England, Singapore, and Germany.
